BRADLEY

Said to Be For Cox For Republican Nomination

Senator Favors Maysville Man For Governor

FRANKPORT, KY., March 5th-Senator Brad-May is for William H Cox for the Republican nomination for Governor. That is said to be schoolutely certain and comes from a man to whom the Senator declared himself quite frankly. The Senator recently wrote a letter so a friend in Frankfort in which he stated what he was for Governor Cox and thought he was 'the most available and best man to lead the Republican party at the coming election.

As the Republicans in the Capital and perhape all over the State have been waiting for the Senator to announce who he was for, it is expected that there will be a lively scramble shortly to get into the Cox bandwagon. Sensttor Bradley is said to be the boss, and it is estated that each man who wants to run for Governor is looking to Washington to see what "he "Big Man" is going to say. Thus far, for publication, Senator Bradley has not declared for anybody, but it is probable that he will not the long letting it be known how he stands. He has already declared himself, in private, weveral times and each time he has said he was for the Lieutenant Governor.

CLOSE FRIENDS FOR YEARS.

Senator Bradley and Governor Cox have been close friends for many years, and it was Gover. Put in a mor Cox who was selected by the Senator for the Republican nomination four years ago. At that time Senator Bradley went to Maysville to see Governor Cox and told him that he wanted him to be the Republican nominee. He said the Republicans had a good chance to win. Governor Cox said he was not a speaker, and a apeaker was needed to head the ticket and make a campaign. He said he would take a place on the ticket, but suggested Augustus E. Willson as the man for the place as Governor. Senstor Bradley accepted that way out and Governor Willson was nominated.

COX WANTS NOMINATION.

Now that another race is on, and Governor Cox wants the nomination, he again has the backing of his friend, Senator Bradley, who is all-powerful is the Republican party. The wise once at Frankfort therefore are of the opinion that Governor Cox will be the nominee. But It is well within the possibilities that the word of Senator Bradley will not be accepted in the THE ematter of a nomination for Governor and that PECK-the other candidates will make a fight before the people of the State. In this respect Governor Cox is by no means weak, and there should be some lively fighting should Judge O'Rear or Judge Breathitt decide to make an effort to capture a majority of the votes in the Convention. Judge O'Rear would make a hot fight if he went in to win and Judge there may be some fun after all.
